Jeffrey,

I received the fedex with airstair parts last night from California, only to=find the motor in the box, no actuator. I was confirmed that both parts we=e going to ship. I spoke to parts broker in Houston last night, I will have=more answers tomorrow morning when overhaul shop opens in California why no=actuator was shipped. I will Continue with your idea to fasten a piece with=two part JBWeld and possible pins to secure our current actuator.
I WILL have airstairs operational by your deadline of Nov 21st., -do you think our departure Tuesday or Wednesday will be in GIV or B727?

Thank you,
Larry
