Good Day Boss

LSJ suburban went in first the week before the first hurricane. It lost 3 glass panels on the driver side, due to hurricane Irma. Those panels were ordered red and repairs set to begin immediately but then the second hurricane. Mar-a hit. Mr VanHolten is replacing those panels at his cost. They recently arrived on island and repairs are forward as planned. The car is scheduled to be released Wednesday next week. Then the Denali is going in for repairs to the driver side bumper and a polish. The black F250 will follow for repairs of a scratch on the passenger side tail. Larry's Suburban will be the final vehicle on the schedule for repairs for dents, broken rack and to be painted and polished. Attached are pictures of LSJ Suburban after the hurricanes.=
