To which I said: "I think 4.5 seems fair to me. The com=ensation should reflect who is generating the revenue. Doesn't seems f=ir to me that in a year when my business is up a bit my comp goes down dra=atically."

He said Henry has to decide and h='ll talk with him.

Question: Looks like the net number may go up by about 2.5 in the next week if another fee gets triggered on a deal I started, so we'd be at 20 more or less in my business this year. But I won't know for sure for a week or so. So if I make the call on Wednesday this week, should I say -- seems to me 4.5 is fair at the 18 number, and about 5.25=at the 20 number?
