H=, that made me smile.. Why do you think I'm expecting new challenging expe=iences in my apt?

Yes I lov= new challenges and surrounding myself with smart, eccentric people with b=g ideas, in both my personal and professional life. Coincidentally, one of=those just called and asked me to work for his company here in ny. He is b=ilding solar-powered perpetual flight drones and airplanes to provide inte=net in remote areas, also invented a new way to make composite materials a=d is building some crazy flying things for [REDACTED]. I could be the [REDACTED] on his jet and a [REDACTED] for the experimental toys. I just visited th= company and deciding if I should do it. The test flying is no joke...cert=inly a tempting challenge and learning opportunity compared to 'driving a =us' for a discount airline, but risky. :) I also can't leave the country s= if I wanted to try the airline world, it would need be here instead of Eu=ope. There is a new pilot shortage so they are all going to have issues fi=ding enough qualified pilots soon...at least until pilots are no longer ne=ded at all..

PS: Did you think th= last video I sent was fake?
