The only discussion, by email, was about shifting the distribution from one grandchild to another. Valeria will send you the correspondence. No other authorization in writing, and I have no recollection of verbal authorizations.

We're still trying to clarify the alleged distributions to me from the marital accounts. According to Deborah, these were to pay our taxes. We received no notification of this, and so far haven't been able to find out, from the accountant, whether our payment of taxes was correspondingly reduced. We wrote to ask him 12 days ago, but no response yet.

I wrote to the three children about authorizing Max to step down as trustee of the marital trusts.
