This is what I sent this morning that gmail refused to deliver. I know it doesn't address all the issues in your following email, and I'll answer that separately, but at least I wanted you to know that we did answer. I'm removing the previous email trail in case that's what's causing problems (though I can't see why it would be).

Of course it matters. We are heart=roken about the whole situation - we never, ever imagined that things would be like this.

We hadn't seen the petition to=the court before, but we've read it now, along with everything you've said in=your emails. We understand how you will have found some of Harry's statement= in the court filing to be very hurtful. We did try to explain our thoughts on a few of the issues in previous emails, but we don't think any of us found those conversations to be productive.

At this point, we really feel it h=s to be up to you and Harry (and your legal representatives) to resolve the situation. Our intention is not to stand in the way.

love, Avi and Diane
