Morning

TV has been removed and electrical has been pulled down

The hole will be plastered and covered in but the issue is the 2 white cover plates which will have to remain as they feed all the power to the upper lights and power around the banquet

If you wish for them to be removed we will need to break thru the wall - very large area and rerun all power

Did you have any plans for artwork on the wall, so as to cover plates?

Please advise -

OK with plates showing? would annoy me

Break thru wall and rerun power?

Artwork will cover plates

Thanks

Karen
