Last year you said you were giving me $100,000 for my 70th Birt=day.

I had one birthday dinner in June in London for=50 people at Harry's Bar that Jessica de Rothchild paid for.

I hosted a second seated dinner/birthday party in Southampton in J=ly at Gigi and Avie Mortimer's house that cost $70,000 for over 100 people= This price included catering, rentals, party designer, flowers, =tc. I believe bills were submitted to your office.

A=am Lindemann hosted a lunch the following week, in Montauk at his Andy War=ol house for 50 people that he paid for.

The $30,000 that was left over was to be used for renovating m= apartment. My office asked for this last year and we never got it. =hat's as much as I know.

If the $70,000 is the gift, that is fine. Just wanted=you to know the back story. I am always so appreciative of everything you =o for me...and keep me afloat emotionally as well. I am your very l=yal friend always.

xoxo Peggy
