Thanks. Still on the road. Justin read the r=gs and knew all details when we talked. He was quite good and his advice in=many ways was not that different from yours. Actually more informed in a nu=ber of ways. So let's talk tomorrow. Will not be on the road tomorrow. Will be in Reykjavik. Thanks.

i assume you decided you'd rather not talk today. ok. here once again is my best advice. . . I am relentless though you have ignored 95 % of all my recommendations. . . you and nancy need to decide what is important for you. when you hired justin i said i believed that it will come down to a negotiation over how much severance. nothing more , nothing less. at conciliation i believe you could get some money. up to=two years. rough guess. that's if you don't piss them off further. it will depend on how far along the appeal is. &nb=p; and how it is progressing. . you will then need to decide if you want to go public quickly outlining the silliness of it all. you need to say you have been terminated for allegations not brought by a=y student or faculty member , but as a result of the press. I was man at a bar in australia , given weight as a result of the university paying your ticket. (. why did they pay?). they will fight back and release this report. IF you fight=hard you will end up with only expenses and no money. , this is all negotiation. , nothing substantive. if they think you will go away for 500k , its a maybe , if they=say no, you can always fight. but to what end? = im around tomorrow.. everything you need to know is in the pd= i sent you that your moron of a lawyer obviously did not read

Subject: =mail to send ASAP

<=iv> Lawrence,

Courtney and I have reviewed the policies, and here is the email you should send to Patrick Kenney ASAP; don't copy us, but forward it to you after you've sent it. And again, please get this out quickly=so we can know as soon as possible whether we need to be drafting an entire appeal, or whether we just need you to say="I'm appealing."

Patrick,

I have two questions. One, does my notice of appeal to President C=ow simply need to say that I am appealing, or does it also need to explain the grounds for my appeal? The policy seems to suggest only the former,=but please let me know. If it is the latter, I may need an extension of the deadline, as I am currently on vacation out of the country, so please let me know to whom I should direct such a request. Two, I see that ABOR 6-201 entitles me to either c=nciliation or mediation. Can you explain to me, or can you direct me to someone who can explain to me, the different between those two things?

Thank you,

Lawrence
