RE claim of propositioning Lucy Hawking at an interview =or a job. Just to reiterate lunch where I joked with Lucy was in NYC at Wo=Id Science Festival in late May of 2009, between three friends who were al= participating in the festival. Pen Moon, who reported on this conve=sation (incorrectly saying she thought it was in the UK) actually did not =egin at ASU until a year later, in June of 2010. Penn herself =as interviewed and offered a job at at ASU in early april of 2010.. still =lmost a year after the conversation in question. It was Pen who rai=ed the idea of having Lucy as a writer in residence, and I approached Lucy=about it in April and raised the possibility that the University might pro=ide support for her and what the nature of such a job might be in April of=2010. Thus there is no possibility that any discussions a year earlier, in=June 2009 would have involved a job offer, nor would it have been in any c=se, since this was a lunch between friends having nothing to do with ASU.<=div>

Here is the correspondence beginning in April of 2=10 where I raise the possibility with the University, and Penn chimes in w=th details. The first correspondence I have with Lucy about this is =n June of 2010. I append the relevant emails here.

Hi all.. have been talking to Lucy Hawking about plans for her=coming here next year to be an Origins Writer in Residence. As you k=ow, she has already authored several children's books on the history o= the universe, and has some other interesting works in the process. = expect Lucy will visit sometime in mid June after I return.. she is inter=sted in talking to people about several things:

1. what=she might be expected to do.. teach a possible course, or give some =lectures? etc.. Lucy should probably interface with students in some way.. =nd also maybe faculty etc...
2. Her 13 year old son is mil=ly autistic and she will need advice on a school that he could enroll in.<=div>
3. how long she would spend here.. a term or a year?

I have cc'd Lee on this, but I assume we should also invol=e the director of our creative writing program..

I also just heard that Kip Thorne of Caltech (a close associate of Stephen Hawking's, and a friend) is now engaged in full time writing of a screenplay which Steven Spielberg is turning into a movie.. I am hoping we could coordinate something with perhaps both of them, and Lucy, and maybe Stephen too in the spring of next year..

There is a school in=Scottsdale which specializes in high-functioning autistic kids and kids with other challenges. From what I can tell, the school has an excellent reputation and its advisory board is very impressive. Ms. Hawking may want to look into it.

H= Lawrence!

Just a friendly word of support for your wee= - I hope everything is going okay for you in your various different endeavours.

I am back in Cambridge and sorting out more=details re Arizona. It looks sure that William has a school place and I ha=e found a house in N Scottsdale which would make it easy for him to get to=school and for me to hop on the 101 and head down to Tempe. When you'r= free of other pressing concerns, I'd love to talk to you to finalise =details between us and, if appropriate, get moving on the visas. Otherwise, I cannot thank you enough, bot= for this opportunity and for the relevatory self-knowledge you gifted me.=Lawrence, you are my knight in shining armour - I can't say how glad I=am for your friendship and your helping hand at exactly the right moments,=/div>

With very much love, Lucy xx

Dear Lawrence,

Thank you so much for this exciting opportunity! I am extremely grateful to you and to ASU. I was very impressed by ASU on my recent visit and look forward greatly to taking part in the life of the university. This is a wonderful chance for me and I thank you all for this offer, which I am delighted to accept,

Very warmest wishes,
Lucy
