RE claim of =ropositioning Lucy Hawking at an interview for a job. Just to reiterate =unch where I joked with Lucy was in NYC at World Science Festival in =ate May of 2009, between three friends who were all participating in =he festival. Pen Moon, who reported on this conversation =incorrectly saying she thought it was in the UK) actually did not begin =t ASU until a year later, in June of 2010. Penn herself was =interviewed and offered a job at at ASU in early april of 2010.. still =lmost a year after the conversation in question. It was Pen who =aised the idea of having Lucy as a writer in residence, and I =pproached Lucy about it in April and raised the possibility that the =niversity might provide support for her and what the nature of such a =ob might be in April of 2010. Thus there is no possibility that any =discussions a year earlier, in June 2009 would have involved a job =ffer, nor would it have been in any case, since this was a lunch =between friends having nothing to do with ASU.

Here is the correspondence beginning in =pril of 2010 where I raise the possibility with the University, and =enn chimes in with details. The first correspondence I have with =ucy about this is in June of 2010. I append the relevant emails =ere.

Hi all.. have been =alking to Lucy Hawking about plans for her coming here next year to be =n Origins Writer in Residence. As you know, she has already =uthored several children's books on the history of the universe, and =as some other interesting works in the process. I expect Lucy =ill visit sometime in mid June after I return.. she is interested in =alking to people about several things:

1. what she might be expected to do.. =nbsp;teach a possible course, or give some lectures? etc.. Lucy should =robably interface with students in some way.. and also maybe faculty =tc...
2. Her 13 year old son is mildly =utistic and she will need advice on a school that he could enroll =n.
3. how long she would spend here.. a term or a =ear?

I have =c'd Lee on this, but I assume we should also involve the director of =ur creative writing program..

I also just heard that Kip Thorne of =altech (a close associate of Stephen H's, and a friend) is now engaged =n full time writing of a screenplay which Steven Spielberg is turning =nto a movie.. I am hoping we could coordinate something with =erhaps both of them, and Lucy, and maybe Stephen too in the spring of =ext year..

There is a school in Scottsdale which specializes in high-functioning autistic kids and kids with other challenges. From what I can tell, the school has an excellent reputation and its advisory board is very impressive. Ms. Hawking may want to look into it.

Hi Lawrence!

Just a friendly word of support for our week - I hope everything is going okay for you in your various different endeavours.

I am back in Cambridge and sorting out more details re Arizona. It looks sure that William has a school place and I have found a house in N Scottsdale which would make it easy for him to get to =chool and for me to hop on the 101 and head down to Tempe. When you're =ree of other pressing concerns, I'd love to talk to you to finalise =etails between us and, if appropriate, get moving on the visas. I was =ondering if you could stretch to $25-$30,000? Does that sound too =rasping on my part?

Otherwise, I cannot thank you enough, both for this =portunity and for the relevatory self-knowledge you gifted me. =awrence, you are my knight in shining armour - I can't say how glad I =m for your friendship and your helping hand at exactly the right =oments,

With =ery much love, Lucy xx

Dear Lawrence,

Thank you so much for this exciting opportunity! I am extremely grateful to you and to ASU. I was very impressed by ASU on my recent visit and look forward greatly to taking part in the life of the university. This is a wonderful chance for me and I thank you all for this offer, which I am delighted to accept,

Very warmest wishes,

Lucy
