Yes, port of entry laws are based on the home country, but they're all basically the same.

The port of entry is where they claim asylum, but they can also claim it "in country".

What exactly do you mean by prosecuted? Prosecuted for criminal activity at the POE? Or processed for removal?

I was just remembering our conversation with Woody Allen and I just wanted to say thanks. It's always cool to get into a discussion with someone of his reputation.

So like I said, thank you.

See you soon.
