Thanks. Still on the road. Justin read the regs and knew all details when we talked. He was quite good and his advice in many ways was not that different from yours. Actually more informed in a number of ways. So let's talk tomorrow. Will not be on the road tomorrow. Will be in Reykjavik. Thanks.

i assume you decided you'd rather not talk today. ok. here once again is my best advice. . I am relentless though you have ignored 95 % of all my recommendations. . you and nancy need to decide what is important for you. when you hired justin i said i believed that it will come down to a negotiation over how much severance. nothing more , nothing less. . at conciliation i believe you could get some money. up to two years. rough guess. that is if you dont piss them off further. ♦=A0 it will depend on how far along the appeal is. and how it is progressing. . you will then need to decide if you want to go public quickly outlining the silliness of it all. you need to say you have been terminated for allegations not brought by any student or faculty member , but as a result of the press. I would assume a bar in australia , given weight as a result of the university paying your ticket. (. why did they pay?). they will fight back and release this report. IF you fight hard you will end up with only expenses and no money. , this is all negotiation. , nothing substantive. if they think you will go away for 500k , its a maybe , if they say no, you can always fight. but to what end? ♦=A0 im around tomorrow. . everything you need to know is in the pdf i sent you that your moron of a lawyer obviously did not read

Lawrence,

Courtney and I have reviewed the policies, and here is the email you sould send to Patrick Kenney ASAP; don't copy us, but forward it to=us after you've sent it. And again, please get this out quic=ly so we can know as soon as possible whether we need to be drafting an entire appeal, or whether we just need you to sa= "I'm appealing."

Patrick,

I have two questions. One, does my notice of appeal to President=Crow simply need to say that I am appealing, or does it also need to expla=n the grounds for my appeal? The policy seems to suggest only the fo=mer, but please let me know. If it is the latter, I may need an extension of the deadline, as I am current=y on vacation out of the country, so please let me know to whom I should d=rect such a request.
