Depends who t=ey strike, one of the federal officers, then it's a violation of US Co=e, so we would be processing the individual, if they struck anyone else, t=e AUSA would have the first right of refusal, but if they decline, we can =all the locals.

If they then claim asylum, we would begin =he process for removal and hand them over to either ICE or the locals. =AO

Yes, port of entry laws are bas=d on the home country, but they're all basically the same.

The port of entry is where they claim asylum, but they can also =laim it "in country".

What exactly do you mean b= prosecuted? Prosecuted for criminal activity at the POE? Or processed for=removal?
