Jeffrey,

If you would like to keep the window l=ne fabric "as is", then further to our recent conversation=, the PSU would be covered in the same fabric as the window line.

The upper valence and the headliner co=ld be covered in:

1. =A0 Ultrasuede</=>
2. =A0 Wool cloth</=>
3. =A0 Same material as the windowline

I just sat in the aircraft absorbing t=e possibilities, and trying to get into your mindset. The windowline=fabric has a "gritty" textural look (Hermes look). Maybe we should continue that fabric all the way around (PSU, Upper valenc= & headliner).

THEN – maybe we wrap the =80 handrails" (which we had recovered previously) in the same le=ther as the seats or a brown leather to match the woodwork and put a stitc=ed seam to join the hide lengths. This would be very, very Hermes in st=le.

We need to make a decision to avoid de=ay.

I am leaving the office in a few minut=s, but I am available on my cell [REDACTED].
