Honeywell really screwed up and sent the Part UPS overnight., Tracking shows the part is on the truck for delivery, we have no idea of est=imated delivery time.,should be an AM delivery., The original "display controller" is installed and the aircr=ft is operating normal at this time, Should we wait a little longer or do you want to depart at 10am? And install=the Part on Thursday when we return?

I can taxi the plane to Atlanta, if the part arrives, Gulfstream will come d=wn immediately and install, should only take 30 minutes if the part arrive=,,

Do you want to delay, or leave at 10am?
