I wonder whether this should be the first priority. =eems to me that Harry is the one taking really disgraceful positions now, =nd his petition, with its ugly insinuations about Valeria (I'll skip a=out me), is coming to court very soon, and if uncontested and granted, wil= get rid of Max anyway.

That aside, until I get the act=al documents I don't really know what I can write that would be convin=ing, to the committee or to the public. I don't know the answers=to the questions about distributions since 2009, or even whether the legal=y obligated sums were paid to me.

I hadn't realized that the conflict discussed in connection with Gene's proposal extending to pursuing the matter of the apparent disappearance of these funds. If Bainco continues to refuse to provide information, I will then have to pursue other methods.

Have you received any response from Bainco about the missing funds? There surely has been time for them to find the answer. A lot of money is involved, and if they refuse to give the information, further action will be necessary.

That's curious. Could you write again, and if he doesn't respond quickly we'll have to think about further action. That's a lot of money to just disappear. /u>

Subject: Request regarding Noam Chomsky

To: "Mr. Samuel E. Bain Jr." <[REDACTED]> <mailto:[REDACTED]>

Cc: Noam Chomsky <[REDACTED]> <mailto:[REDACTED]>

Dear Sam,<=>

Noam has requested that we look into a discrepancy on his behalf regarding a RMD distribution made on January 22, 2015 in the amount of $187,000. He states that he has been unable to determine where these funds went. In your records, it shows this distribution was made to the Noam Chomsky Revocable Trust and then subsequently wired to his checking account. Noam states that a deposit was made into his checking account on that date in the amount of $70,000, but not the full amount. We can also see from your records that distributions totalling $150,000 were made from the Noam Chomsky Revocable Trust during the period of January 26, 2015 – February 4, 2015, which may account for some of these funds, but not the total, and none of these distributions show a wire/deposit into the checking account. We are unable to go any further in our investigation as we have no other records to check.

Please let me know with whom on your team I can coordinate to look into this matter so that we can provide Noam with full detail into the disbursements associated with the $187,000 RMD. Thank you, in advance, for your assistance.

Warm regards,

Deborah
