I found another letter, Nov. 3 2017, that I wrote to Max and our lawyer:

It says that I had received from her some information that you sent to her about the accounting of the marital trusts. It is quite puzzling. It refers to distributions to and on behalf of me. I am unaware of any distributions "to" me, nor "on behalf of" me. And there is no indication of to whom the distributions were made and who might have authorized them.

Can we obtain a complete accounting of the trusts without any further delay, each account statement for the past four years. I will pay to have them scanned or copied'
