Good Afternoon Mr Epstein,

Please see the =ttached list on what every crew is doing. I am going to suggest we s=art using ProCore, its how we manage high-rise construction in NYC with 40= men onsite daily. This will allow you to get daily manpower reports= daily photos of work finished, and what delays we had. It may make =SJ and GSJ projects run smoother and allow you to view in detail what is h=ppening daily, weekly, and monthly. This is what I did when develope=s wanted to be informed daily of what was happening onsite. Thanks!<=div>

Very Respectfully,
