Daphne, are you ok with a $250 cancellation fee? Usually once an order is confirmed and production starts there's up to a 10% fee, but I was able to get that waived, so just the admin $250 fee remains.

Good morning Jason,

After researching the installation address provided, I see that the address is for Red Hook Dive Center – which is a scuba diving shop. Since a diving board could not be installed at this location, I will need the physical address of the pool this equipment is planned to be installed at before we will be able to release this shipment.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank You,

Kayla Spry
