lawrence. . not sure how you would like m= to help. the first paragraph , will assure your t=rmination. in my estimation.

ngest terms that the Dean's recommendation is grossly inappropriate, for = variety of reasons. As I will describe, the Dean based his decision on an uncritical evaluation of a deeply flawed, highly b=ased, and factually incomplete investigation. Little or no effort was made to check the validity of a variety of claims against =e, the credibility of individuals who were shown to have provided false information was not questioned, and li=tle was made to reach out to other individuals who are familiar in depth with my experiences both inside and outside ASU. Moreover, my behavior, and its implications for others, was strongly distorted and/or misrepresented. =br>

they spent months try=ng to check the validity many hours of interviews and writing. =C2◆ they judged the credibility and in many instances found as you=say the allegations not credible. however in many they found the opposite.= . you need to say you respect their attempt. but =heir conclusions are flawed.. not that they themselves are .
