Jeffrey/Josh...can you both please tell me what to do.

Josh...The kitchen is half done. The bathroom is a mess. The library is empty and she made very rough unprofessional sketches of bookcases on one side and cabinets for a tv and clothes on the other which are so simple to do if we keep her layout. "She never made drawings good enough for a contractor. She is a fraud of a designer".

We are talking about finishing 4-C, my apartment. Do we know, or can I talk to your new contractors about what to do and how much. They are not going to want to use Karen's shitty drawings.

We are talking about finishing my place....

IF I can get the place next door for a real bargain....that could take a year or more because I only want it at $500,000. The President of the Board mentioned $900,000. He is nuts. Nothing is selling on the upper East side. The 4th floor apartment is in the back, noisy from the church kindergarten next door, dark, depressing and in deplorable condition. They do not want to spend money to fix it up and the building does not want to go thru interviews. I am on no rush. Even if I combine the
