At the outset, let me emphasize in the strongest terms that the Dean's recommendation is grossly inappropriate given the claims against me, for a =variety of reasons that I will elucidate here. As I will describe, the Dean based his decision on an uncritical evaluation of=a deeply flawed, highly biased, and factually incomplete investigation. Not enough effort was made to check the validity of certain claims against me w=en parties with direct knowledge were available, the credibility of individual= who were shown to have provided false information was not questioned, and o=her individuals at ASU who are familiar in depth with my experiences both insid= and outside ASU were not contacted. Moreover, my behavior, and its implications for others, was strongly distorted and/or misrepresented.

To the extent that this may have caused any concerns among some individuals at=ASU—concerns that I stress were never relayed to me or to the University during my time at ASU until after a tabloid article appeared about me
