I think it's wise to delay the demand until after today's agreement is settled. I don't see any advantage to doing so before that, and since the demand might elicit a negative reaction, it might disrupt the completion of the agreement just signed.

And it has to be very clear, not just a request, but a demand with some force. Otherwise they could agree and just dismiss it.

Worth doing, no doubt. But I think it would be better to let today's arrangement to be sealed and delivered before making this demand.

I'm glad you were able to put this stressful time to rest. I believe that there is no reason to hide the fact of our concerns, and I would ask that Harry and the girls explicitly acknowledge the fact that you are not leaving them any money or their children, and they will not bring any action against Valeria, for any reason whatsoever,
