Good Afternoon

I am sorry to bother you with this, but as you can see from the attached traffic I am getting no where with this request. Rich requested that a check be issued to Randy's girlfriend, but she does not have a checking account and as yet I have received no further direction from Rich Randy leaves for Santa Domingo on a 10 am flight tomorrow, how would you like for me to proceed?

Again sorry to have to bother you with this Thank you Warmest regards Karen
