samantha has some better topics. . taboos. why and how they change.= gender. sex food. . =C2 each one has a topic to explain to the others. =A0 , the idea for the next needs to be self generated.

Jeffrey,

Here's how we can do that.

</=pan>

1. We pick 12 people for the start. Say 6 guys, 6 girls.

For example Samantha, Katya, Jay, Neil and I=E2 ll show you more candidates.

2. =athering them every 3 months or more often. We can start in the begging of=February so people can put it in the schedules.

For every new gathering we'd ask fir=t attendees to nominate new people and select 2-3 best. Some people can al=o be excluded. We can grow it up to 15-20 people at he first =ear.

3. We discuss some global topics so=people fill like they participate in designing the future. We can also inv=te one additional person who's an expert on the topic.

Idea #1

We discuss state of science, fundame=tal and social, what kind of research they do, what it brings to the world=and how world change under its influence. Invite scientists on topic to sp=ak + make commentaries on them + follow with discussion

Idea #2

United Nations has sustainable develo=ment goals document —

<http://www.un.org/sustainabledevelopment/sustainable-development-goals/>

<<https://www.un.org/sustainabledevelopment/sustainable-development-goals/>> .</=iv>

Every participant can:

- give their idea on ho= they would enhance this document;
- offer their approach =o solve one of the sustainable development goals listed in the document.</=pan>

Speak for 10-15 min on both topics

Idea #3

=e can discuss the key global problems. Say — would it be crises/no=? What's happening with climate change? Is AI a threat? Etc

<=iv>

Idea #4

TBD

At =he end of year we can do 2-3 days event/retreat in a beautiful place so ev=ryone get to know each other even better.

B=tween the sessions we can read a few books on particular topic every time =nd then discuss it all together.

In a year we'd have a solid group of 20 young people educated and knowledgeable on the world's global problems, trends and opportunities. A0

This would look like something between an informal think tank and salon. This group can be used to run through it any ideas/policies that can influence society on international level. Positioning: something like a global young intellectual elite group.

We don't have to say that, we can give a sense of it.

Global thinking, curiosity, fast career growth would be a criteria for each of them.

What do you think?
