Good Evening Boss,

I spoke this afternoon with Mr. Earl Thomas, of VIYA, he will free up some of his crew to address LSJ/GSJ and STC internet service on Tuesday the 26th. He states "he is not making any promises due to the additional damages that hurricane Maria has caused, but he will do his best to restore service. I am also looking into Surge and Broadband VI (other internet service providers), in case VIYA can not restore service in a expedient fashion considering that they have to restore all services on all three islands.

On Monday the 25th I am scheduled to go to the hanger with some of lsj crew to repair the right side rolling door to the tarmac. It is not rolling back to allow the heli to pass. The good news is that there wasn't any additional damages to the hanger.

I am currently working on sending you the pictures of the store that I downloaded from Carlos's phone.

Regards
Jruan
