You didn't want to do anything for=me anyways if I kept working till October except for my rent which I appre=iate. What would have been my reward ? I tried hard for 10months, experien=ing a really tough time. I remember I couldn't even buy myself a c=mputer to work and you told me go buy a used one for $200!! In 5 months my=boyfriend changed my life, bought me an apartment, a car, school, trips, p=enty of gifts made my dreams come true and did more than anyone else has e=er did for me. I'm not asking you anything, I was just trying to b= kind and wanted to know how you were doing as I told you I missed you as = friend since you've been part of my life. That's it =/div>
