Goo= Morning

Spoken with Brian, he can make the sea=ing into storage, would have to breakdown what he has done The inside depth is 10 inches, with a number of support section</=iv> He did mention rather than opening from the top which w=uld involve a number of cuts in the mahogany he could have it an open from t=e lower side, would require some extra support to strengthen the hinged doo= Or would you prefer to view while on site?

Regards
Karen

Storage, what would we p=t in there? Possible dock cleaning items, we are using a dock box at presen=, which works well. Would need some form of hinging, which would clearly le= to rust, also this area is pron to flooding. I just see it becoming a main=enance issue with little up side

Just my thoughts
Karen
