Hi Jeffrey,

This is from Anne Golden, Chair of the Casino Commission:

Online gaming has been progressing slowly as negotiations took place last year by one operator to sell their rim online master service provider interest and the second company from St Thomas was also negotiating a sale. The St Croix group has already retained management and are moving ahead with their project. I hope someone gets involved in sports betting too.

If someone is interested in partnering with a group to get a license or have partners to set up an online gaming interest which would rent space from the master service provider and launch their online games, please let me know if I can be of assistance.

We may need some statutory changes to bring the old statute current but my successor can deal with that matter. There is nothing stopping companies from launching now but it definitely requires considerable investment. We are currently working with clients.

With warm regards,

Cecile
