From dylans guidance counselor they love him and don't understand why he was deferred other than to say that with penn is who you know but we know that

Yes. On short list. BUT what will make them give him an accept this time? He's not a student who needs to prove anything. Has the scores, has the grades and curriculum, has school support. I loved his first tennis essay and would like to give it to Penn for the second round. Schools love to see someone from our kind of privileged school do this kind of work. He has a letter about it but that essay really nails it. So an additional essay, maybe another teacher letter, additional support from people you know.

I've put in a call to our rep, too.
