Jeffrey I didn't lie again. I was working at Petersham for almost=a year for you because I wanted to prove you that I could do it and also b=cause you told me to, until I met my boyfriend this summer who offered to =ake care of me. I didn't lie to you. Understand that if I was stil= working at Petersham at this time I would still be dependent on you for t=e rent as I couldn't support myself with what I was earning and yo= didn't want to give me any future so what I did and the decision = made to quit my job in the summer is totally understandable. I feel much =ore peaceful and relieved now that I don't have financial problems=and have a roof over my head. I really appreciated your help and I will be=forever grateful and I feel better now that I don't need your fina=cial support as I felt it was a burden for you. I always defend you agains= everyone and it hurts me to know that you wouldn't do the same fo= me. What I greatly suffer, everyday, is that you completely disappeared and =eft me alone after you told me that you forgave me knowing how attached I =as/am to you as you represented the world to me. I really miss your presen=e, talking to you on a daily basis because there is nothing that made me m=re happy than hearing your voice and having you by my side. </=>
