Dear Mr. Jeffery,

Following the conference call that took place on Friday the 23rd of November 2018, we received your 4 emails consecutively from Saturday till Monday where you stated clearly your concerns and dissatisfaction. We respect your point of view and we will not justify or defend our position.

I discussed with Xavier the same and all your points and comments in the above mentioned emails are well noted and are under our review.

To move positively forward; we believe it is becoming more essential to communicate more. If your time allows, we can make every 2 days a 15 to 30min conference call.

We will work on sketches for the master plan and the main house plans adjustments for our next conference call.

On the other hand, we assure your our full commitment and eager to develop this project and be a success story especially being for a valuable client that we appreciate and respect.

Regards,

Kifah Laham

Xavier, [REDACTED] passed on the message that you would like to skype or talk. I am happy to do so , but feel quite embarrassed for you. . I reviewed the plans in detail. I would like to believe that you were busy in dubai so you had someone in your office draw up a plan. I can forgive this. but am not sure how to proceed. The cinema in the very center of the house with doors that open onto open corridors is sooo not right . . the arrival sequence is not your work. . you are a genius, this plan is not reflecive of our conversations wind , shade. . circulation of staff. lack of power reliability. . we did not deal with the barge. the friends. toilets opening direclty to lounge areas. ? You and I agreed that ego would not get in the way of honest communication . I am dismayed.
