Sir ,

It does not fit on top of rack needs 42' inch

What we have here is 52' inch it extend to another 4' inche= wide bothsides , or we can order 42' inch asap ,
And also t=ey have no choice except to put hole on roof for power of bar lights , the= can install professionally without visibly noticing wirings and holes , please advise h=w do we proceed , thank you

It only fits here in front of near top windshield but not in roof rack as y=u showed us before .
