So sad to hear this from you... I will never understand why you react this way. I offered to speak with you to catch up and hear from you but you have to turn it down by saying something rude and mean. Tell me what did I take from you ? Why do you have to remember that only negative time when we also had many beautiful ones ? I gave you my love, attentions, friendship and most important I gave you the best years of my life, my youth which is the most precious thing I could ever give to you since I'll never have it back again.
