Any variation of those changes takes value away from the apology. I know you don't dispute that. However, there is no offer to add value to the monetary component. That's not fair.

i understand. what time in the morning can we speak. ? as you and i did agree that it would not contain anything that would be considered admitting a crime. . in keeping with the agreement of no criminal exposure marty asked for the following two . very minor changes, and we are done.

While Mr. Edwards was representing clients against me, I filed a lawsuit against him in which I made allegations about him that I now know to be {absolutely} false. The truth was is that his aggressive investigation and litigation style was highly effective and therefore troublesome for me. The lawsuit I filed was in part my .. I still have not read the article. You always say how you don't watch everything. But I really don't.

Nothing criminal in the statement. It's ridiculous that Marty is saying that. He's a great lawyer but just paranoid on this one. I made changes as you and Scott requested. After you and I made a deal, your team started renegotiating the apology part of it, without having any authority to renegotiate the other part.

If it was not in jail then it must have been very recent. Because she only recently got out.

Without lawyers, we can get things done. Impossible once you bring in the opinions of a bunch of lawyers.

I am out of the country tomorrow through Sunday. My wife's birthday. I can't take any more time dealing with this. Especially after we reached an agreement. My flight is at 9:30 in the morning.
