1. the person who designed the plan,♦=A0 ignored all that we have spoken about. As a small e=ample of the many many errors. the cinema , cannot=be in the center of the house. it is super noisy. =t has too many seats. the wrong heights. the wrong=entries. (open doors directly in, letting out sound and lett=ng in light. the dressing room has 10 times the am=unt of closets needed. . and has a lobby that is always=C2♦ dark. . the angles of the building are wrong= . their are three elevators that we were clear ♦=A0 power goes out all the time , they can be used only in an emergen=y .

there is a big window in my bedroom , =and a toilet that opens directly onto the bed.. ? =this is an island.. the north view is nowhere to =e seen and the angles of the structure point in the wrong direclon.=C2♦ . .
