Correct me if I'm wrong, but I believe Skype should be installed & working on all your computers, yes? I'm pretty sure I included it on all the iMac Pros.

Not being in Palm Beach makes it difficult for me to test this with them... If you want, I could have you install teamviewer on your computer there to let me remote in. I could test basic connectivity that way (I wouldn't be able to confirm video & audio quality, tho).

Dear James,

We have consulted our IT.<=p>

* You need "Skype" or "Skype business" with account.=/span>

- * We need your email address linked to your "Skype" or "Skype business" account.
- * We will register your address in our "Skype" and will invite you via Skype.

I think it's better to test tomorrow.

Is it possible ?

Thank you,

Regards,

Cordialement,
