I had a chance to look at the Excel file. My sense is that the portfolio is salable in the range of $300-350K. As mentioned when we spoke, many of the diamonds have issues that would prevent them from realizing a fuller value. The issues include Medium Fluorescence or Very Good Polish and Very Good Symmetry. If there was potential interest in selling the group, I would need to see the diamonds in person so that we could evaluate them more diligently.
