Sounds OK to us.

Meanwhile, I've looked over the attachments you =ent.

Apart from the reports from Bainco, which don't mean much to me, the rest seems to repeat what we know. Until we began requesting information from Max in 2016, =here's very little information. There are many distributions to family in =010, some later for Lexington house repairs. There's a list of "contributions" in 2014 and 2015 that seem to have to do with investments. I don't =ee any information about any distributions to me, if any; or in fact any relevant =information from 2010 to 2016.

From the non-exempt Trust there are lots of distributions, but no indication of to =hom.

About the beneficiary distributions, there are no details. I would like to have them. There's also a reference to an annual gift to Harry. I don't know what that is.

Ray Madoff, the proposed mediator, has expressed an interest in mediating the dispute. She charges $700 per hour which will be split in thirds. She reports that she would like to meet with each attorney separately and then convene for a 1 day joint session. Since we have already approved Madoff I assume these terms are acceptable but want to make sure you are ok with them. Thanks.
