Dear Mr. Jeffery,

Hope you are well.

Yes I met with Xavier in Paris upon his return from LSJ and we went through all your comments. We don't think that we are back to square one but we believe that this is part of the design process of understanding more the expectations of the Client and Adapting the Concepts to the site conditions.

We take seriously all your valuable comments and your experience on the Island. We will sure involve you more with all the steps prior producing drawings in the future.

We are very confident that we will deliver to you a very special project.

Regards,

Kifah Laham

Sorry you didn't come, we had a good meeting, as you've heard, we are back to square one. So again, lets not spend anytime on pretty drawings. But concepts , program- a priority. Privacy! No separate guest entrances , setbacks easy , But maintenance, roads etc , cannot have totally enclosed gardens as equipment needed in and out etc
