Subject: Jim Watson

Some of you=have heard of Jim's accident last Friday on lab grounds. Upon driv=ng down from the hillside campus to our main roadway, his car somehow acce=erated, hit a guardrail and crashed down a wooded ravine toward the inner =arbor. Fortunately he had his seatbelt on and was found within minutes by members of our security team. <<http://longisland.news12.com/story/3936=255/sources-dna-pioneer-drove-down-20-foot-ditch-at-cold-spring-harbor-lab=ratory>>

Ji= is still in intensive care at North Shore Hospital (under a pseudonym).=C2◆ He suffered head trauma with a gash atop his head, cut eyelid and fr=ctured eye socket (now repaired).

Liz is with him nearly aroun= the clock. If you'd like to send a note or card, I suggest =ailing it to their house:
