Good Afternoon =ich,

I just got =onfirmation from JPK that as of 1:20 pm today the shower doors and =rivacy glass has not been ordered. We sent them =n email to proceed 9/10/18 with ordering of the shower doors and =rivacy glass and have been told verbally by JPK up to this point that =hey have been ordered. We have two options:

- 1- We wait for JPK to =rder these today.
- 2-We take over this scope and order today.

In the mean time until =hese arrive the showers will be operational because I =ill make sure we keep the exterior doors in place until the new shower =oors arrive.

Jay informed me verbally on Friday that the stone wall he bid =n at the main compound pool was the incorrect =umber. The number for the wall we received was =13,680.00. He has informed me this price is closer to 50K. = informed him that this type of mistake cannot happen and he needed to =end you and I a detailed email to explain himself and how this big of =n error occurred. Expert Builders bid for this was 60K. I =an work on finding other bidders if we cannot get a resolution with =PK.

Very Respectfully,

Kyle Reavis =nbsp;
