Dear Jeff=ey,

We are finding a diff=cult time in finding the right way to write the letter. Would you have som= suggestions?

I am happy if Noam finds a way to establish a se=tlement with his family, because a family should not go to court, from my =nderstanding. And the whole situation that a son comes to challenge his fa=her because of money, it is totally surreal to me. But I am not goin= to accept their conditions, as Harry already suggested in a letter to Noa= for Noam to shield him and Max from what they have done wrong.

You have been a hero for us and there are not enough words t= thank you.

Since he is not answering any of my questions, I do not know how to proceed. Should I consult with Vincent first? Just fire him and start on a new tack?

You're suggesting that I write a letter that reviews the failures of the Trustees to provide relevant information about distributions from the trust, including the obligatory distributions to me (which we have no record of receiving)? Anything else? To whom should the letter be addressed?

Shouldn't I consult with Vincent before doing anything? Don't want him to feel that I'm making an end-run around his efforts on our behalf.
