Thanks, Noam. We are setting a tax attorney involved, as we discussed last week.

It would be helpful to have a more fulsome explanation of the many ways in which you have provided for your children and grand children. I can see an effective opening statement in a mediation, if we get there, outlining with some detail all of the support you have already given to them. It doesn't need to be audit-ready, just a list with some approximate values.

In discussion with Richard Kahn, he suggested that I send you the attached letter as background for negotiations.

Noam
