Ben . your aircraft is truly great.✈=A0 I personally wish you great luck in selling it. =thx for your time. I feel =wkward pointing out my concerns as , you have worked hard to get it =ight. If it were mine I would I redo the for=ard galley. get rid of commercail stewardess seat. . for=ard cabin you need a VIP seat with controls right next to it. =not across a table or one the wall. the layout in the =orward cabin , is awkward for both principal and family, ✈=A0 divans with no place for food or laptops , seems odd. Taking off=sitting side saddle is never really nice. . then there is lack=of fuel mitigation. . aux tanks. . and cabin altitude mod ( the most impor=ant for most new buyers. ). those are my my personal thought=. . I wish you well , and appreciate your time <=r>

Hi Larry,

Thanks for the feedback.

Not sure I understand=the sudden change of heart towards the aircraft.

Love to disc=ss if you can so we can understand your concerns.

We are confident =n a quick US C of A applicability and the fuel mitigation solution as disc=ssed has a easy , relatively cheap solution.

The other points you r=requested info on as options / preference are also not major.

L=t me know when you can chat.

Thanks,
