Good Morning M= Epstein,

The tile guys who are doing coral stone are requesting two unskilled laborers from JPK to assist in cleaning and prep (chipping / pouring concrete) to speed things along. The price is 40 dollars an hour per laborer and I suggest we give them one week with helpers starting Monday and make sure its worth it. I am trying to get the coral stone at the main compound wrapped up in the next two weeks and send the tile guys into the cabana bathrooms.

Very Respectfully,

Kyle Reavis

Discussing with Brian the tiler, C2 he would like two helpers to speed up and assist with the work he is doing. Their rates are 40 per hour each.

Thanks
