Dear Jeffrey,

We are finding a difficult time=in finding the right way to write the letter. Would you have some suggesti=ns?

And about=the settlement, I don't care how much money is involved, I am no= going to sign a settlement agreement saying that Harry and Max did not do=anything wrong, because I am not going to lie.

I am happy if Noam finds a way to establish a settlement wi=h his family, because a family should not go to court, from my understandi=g. And the whole situation that a son comes to challenge his father becaus= of money, it is totally surreal to me. But I am not going to accept=their conditions, as Harry already suggested in a letter to Noam for Noam =o shield him and Max from what they have done wrong.

You have been a hero for us and there are not enough words to thank you=

Since he is not answering any of my q=estions, I do not know how to proceed. Should I consult with Vincent=first? Just fire him and start on a new tack?

Let me see if I understand. Shouldn't I consult =ith Vincent before doing anything? Don't want him to feel that I&=39;m making an end-run around his efforts on our behalf.

Talked to Vincent today. He said that he had been contacted by Max's lawyer -- apparently some big shot insurance=lawyer -- who wanted to move towards a settlement out of court, and felt he could bring Harry's lawyer into this. Vincent's own proposal= turns out to be what you suggested some time ago, and then I proposed to =carry without response: to arrange to divide up the Trust and then liquidat= it. We said OK.
