Jeffrey

I just received this email from=Ben this morning, I didn't send you email to him yet, Should I wait until we hear his quote tomorrow? Or send your email? =/div> Thx Larry

From Ben:&nb=p;
Good=morning Larry,

Sorry just getting back to you.

Was head=ng back from LA most of yesterday.

Our deal has not gone hard y=t , we are still working thru some of the details to see if they can end up=with a 91 aircraft.

Anyhow we now are open to put a deal together wi=h you if the numbers work.

I'll get with our team tomorrow a=d quote the items you requested below.

Most would need to be p=st closing due to the engineering lead times before the physical work can b= done(1,4&5).

We will also get you CAMP as requested , they shou=d have it updated by now.

Let's chat tomorrow and review the=info , timelines and see if we can find a way forward.

Thanks!
