Let me see if I understand. You're suggesting that I write a letter that reviews the failures of the Trustees to provide relevant information about distributions from the trust, including the obligatory distributions to me (which we have no record of receiving)? Anything else? To whom should the letter be addressed?

Shouldn't I consult with Vincent before doing anything? Don't want him to feel that I'm making an end-run around his efforts on our behalf.

The letter will not be sent . Trust me. It is for show only

I wonder whether this is really the right thing to do now. Vincent seems to feel that a settlement is possible that will end the matter of the trust on essentially the terms I proposed (at your suggestion) some time ago. Wouldn't it make sense to see if this can proceed before writing a letter, which would essentially repeat what is in our petition we filed, which reviews all the facts.

welcome back. Please pen a letter to use for negotiations. It should be an article as if you are writing it for the Boston Globe about being taken advantage of by a trust and estate lawyer in your later years. It is the most important letter for Valeria's future. So take some time. Make it tough.
